

10 Reasons an Agent should call American Restoration

1. Emergency Mitigation. During an emergency, American Restoration is available 24/7 and can stop further damage to a property.
2. Client Retention. We know that keeping claims at a minimum benefits the Agency and the Policy Holder. At American Restoration, we keep that in mind.
3. Free Inspection. Our knowledgeable Project Managers will advise the Policy Holder and the Agent of the cause of incident and provide an outline of damages, before a claim is filed.
4. Liaison. Knowing industry terminology and items that are generally covered, American Restoration can act as a liaison between the Agent and the Policy Holder, if needed.
5. Superior Reputation. American Restoration employs local people and local vendors operating on a philosophy of providing exceptional customer service and professionalism. Each employee undergoes a criminal background check, drug test and must maintain a clean driving record.
6. Competitive Pricing. Our team uses Xactimate, an industry standard pricing system that you can rely on. We also calculate utilizing T&M, upon request.
7. Save Money. Our state-of-the-art technology, on-site laundry facility and storage capability enables American Restoration to salvage more items and to securely store contents, eliminating additional warehouse cost.
8. Licensed and Certified. American Restoration is a fully licensed general contractor certified in NC and SC. We are fully insured and bonded and offer a 5 year guarantee on work performed.
9. Capable and Ready. With over 40 years of restoration experience, American Restoration can handle emergency services and repairs 24/7. As a member of DKI, a national network, we are able to utilize a vast amount of resources and can handle a job of any size.
10. Our Specialties. As an insurance restoration company, American Restoration provides emergency mitigation from Fire, Water, Storm, Sewage and Trauma Damage in 10 counties. We are ready and eager to serve you.

American Restoration wants to build a relationship with you and your Agency.
